

Proclamation

City of Cincinnati

Be It Proclaimed:

Whereas, general aviation and community airports play a critical role in the lives of our citizens, as well as in the operation of our businesses and farms; and,

Whereas, the State of Ohio has a significant interest in the continued vitality of general aviation, aerospace, aircraft manufacturing, educational institutions, aviation organizations, and community airports and airport operators; and,

Whereas, according to the Ohio Department of Transportation, Office of Aviation, Ohio has a total of 150 public-use general aviation airports, and according to the FAA, these airports serve 15,586 pilots and 6,319 active general aviation aircraft; and,

Whereas, according to the Ohio Airports Economic Impact Study, general aviation airports in Ohio contribute more than $1.8 billion to the state's economy; and,

Whereas, many communities in Ohio depend heavily on general aviation and community airports for the continued flow of commerce, tourists, and visitors to our state;

Now, Therefore, I, John Cranley,
Mayor of the City of Cincinnati do hereby proclaim December 2016
as

“General Aviation Appreciation Month”

in Cincinnati.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused this seal of the City of Cincinnati to be affixed this First day of December in the year Two Thousand and Sixteen.

John Cranley
Mayor, City of Cincinnati
