

Cedar City, Utah

Proclamation

Whereas, the City of Cedar City in the state of Utah has a significant interest in the continued vitality of general aviation, aircraft manufacturing, aviation educational institutions, aviation organizations and community airports; and

Whereas, general aviation and the Cedar City Regional Airport have an immense economic impact on the City of Cedar City; and

Whereas, Utah is home to 46 public-use airports, which serve 8,570 pilots and 6,852 registered general aviation aircraft; and

Whereas, Utah is home to 42 fixed-base operators, 27 repair stations, 60 heliports, 18 FAA-approved pilot schools, 2,188 flight students and 1,787 flight instructors and the economic output of general aviation in Utah is $2.2 billion and

Whereas, general aviation not only supports Utah's economy, it improves overall quality of life by supporting emergency medical and healthcare services, law enforcement, firefighting and disaster relief, and by transporting business travelers to their destinations quickly and safely; and

Whereas, the nation's aviation infrastructure represents an important public benefit, and Congressional oversight should be in place to ensure that it remains a public system and serves communities of all sizes;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that I, Maile L. Wilson-Edwards, Mayor of Cedar City, do hereby proclaim April, 2019, as General Aviation Appreciation Month in Cedar City, Utah.

Signed on this, the 13th day of March
In the year of our Lord 2019

Maile L. Wilson-Edwards
Mayor of Cedar City
